This little cross is not magic Nor is it a good luck charm It can't protect me From every physical harm. It's not for identification For all the world to see. It's simply an understanding Between my Savior and me. When I put my hand in my pocket To bring out a coin or key The cross is there to remind me Of the price He paid for me. It reminds me, too, to be thankful For my blessings day by day And to strive to serve Him better In all that I do and say. It's also a daily reminder Of the peace and comfort I share With all who know my master And give themselves to His care. ### Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand: one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life. This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why when I needed you, you would leave me." The LORD replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

He began his studies for the priesthood at the age of nineteen. He was ordained in 1815. He was appointed pastor of the village of Ars where the Faith had practically vanished. Here he labored for the rest of his life gaining a worldwide reputation as a priest who practiced great penance, exercised a wondrous power in the confessional, and softened the hearts of sinners by his preaching. After many trials, and the fear of which was an obsession by the devil, Father Vianney, exhausted by his labors and his penance, returned his soul to God in 1859. He was canonized in 1929 and his feast day is celebrated on August 4. Patron Saint of Priests.*

Don't Quit

When things go wrong as they sometimes will,
When the road you're on seems all up hill,
When funds are low
and the debts are high,
And you want to quit,
but you have to sigh,
When care is pressing you down a bit,
Rest, if you must, but don't you quit,
Life is queer with its twists and turns,
As everyone of us sometimes learns,
And many a failure rises about,
When he might have won
had he stuck it out;
Don't give up though the pace
seems slow –
You may succeed with another blow.
Success is failure turned inside out –
The silver tint of the clouds of doubt,
And you never can tell how close you are,
It may be near when it seems so far;
So stick to the fight
when you're hardest hit – It's when things seem worst that you must not quit.

To your motherly heart we entrust our desires and hopes, our work and our prayers. We pray for our country, that we may be able to build nations based on peace and unity. We pray for our families, that they may live in fidelity and love. We pray for our children, that they may grow strong in spirit and in body. We pray for our young people, that their faith may increase, as well as their attachment to the truth. We pray for the sick, the homeless, the lonely, the exiled, and for all suffering souls. We pray for the Catholic Church, for its mission, for its clergy, religious and laity, and especially for our Holy Father Pope Benedict XVI, Mother of Charity!

We place ourselves under your mantle of protection! Blessed are you among women and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus! To Him be the glory and the power, now and forever. Amen.

*Heavenly Father, in Your love for us, protect against the wickedness of the devil, those helpless little ones to whom You have given the gift of life. Touch with pity the hearts of those women pregnant in our world today who are not thinking of motherhood. Help them to see that the child they carry is made in Your image – as well as theirs – made for eternal life. Dispel their fear and selfishness and give them true womanly hearts to love their babies and give them birth and all the needed care that a mother can give. And His mercy is from generation unto generation, to them that fear Him. He hath showed might in His arm. He hath scattered the proud in the conceit of their heart. He hath put down the mighty from their seat, and hath exalted the lowly. He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich He hath sent empty away.  People are often unreasonable,

 If you are kind, people may accuse you of selfish, ulterior motives.
 Be kind anyway.
 If you are successful, you will win some unfaithful friends and some genuine enemies. Succeed anyway.
 If you are honest and sincere, people may deceive you. Be honest could destroy overnight.

 Create anyway. If you find serenity and happiness, some may be jealous. Be happy anyway.
 The good you do today, will often be forgotten. Do good anyway.
 Give the best you have, and it will

All the pain and grief is over; Every restless noising passed; I am now at peace forever; Safely home in heaven at last. Did you wonder how I so calmly find the valley of the shade? Oh, but Jesus' love illumined Every dark and fearful shade. And he came himself to meet me In that way so hard to tread; And with Jesus' arm to lean on, Could I have one doubt or dread? Then you must not grieve so sorely; For I love you dearly still; Try to look beyond earth's shadows; Pray to trust our Father's will. There is work still waiting for you, So you must not idly stand; Do it now, while life remains; You shall rest in Jesus' hand. When that work is all completed, He will gently call you home; Oh, the rapture of that meeting; Oh, the joy to see you come!

Prayer to Saint Sebastian

Dear Commander at the Roman Emperor's court, you chose to be a soldier of Christ and dared to spread faith in the King of Kings --- for which you were condemned to die. Your body, however, proved athletically strong and the executing arrows extremely weak. So another means to kill you was chosen and you gave your life to the Lord. May athletes be always as strong in their faith as their Patron Saint so clearly has been. Amen.

La Cruz en mi bolsillo
Llevo una cruz en mi bolsillo un recordatorio de que soy cristiano. No importa donde me encuentre. Esta pequeña cruz no es mágica ni es un talismán de buena suerte. No está hecha para protegerme de todo daño. No es para identificación para que todo el mundo la vea. Es simplemente un recordatorio de mi Salvador y yo. Cuando meto la mano en mi bolsillo para sacar una moneda o una llave, la cruz está allí para recordarme que Él se sacrificó por mí. Me recuerda también dar las gracias por mis bendiciones diarias y esforzarme por servir a Dios mejor en todo lo que digo y hago. También es un recordatorio diario por la paz y el bienestar que comparto con quienes conozco al Señor y se entregan a su cuidado. Por lo tanto, llevo una cruz en mi bolsillo Recordándome a mí solo, que Jesucristo será Señor de mi vida únicamente con permitirle que lo sea.
